Looking for used kia engines for sale? Junkyard Gold helps drivers and repair shops find a replacement engine that matches the exact Kia vehicle, without the uncertainty of buying an unverified part. Share your 17-digit VIN, or provide the year, model and engine size, and a parts specialist can check compatible options across the supplier network. You can review available pricing and mileage details, then request real photos of the specific engine before making a payment. Every used part includes a written three-month warranty, and qualifying problems within 90 days are handled with pickup and replacement at Junkyard Gold’s cost. Engines are shipped on a pallet, with delivery to repair shops in the lower 48 states at no charge; delivery generally takes five to seven days. Contact Junkyard Gold to check current Kia engine availability, confirm fitment and receive a quote before ordering with confidence and clear information quickly today.
