The Buran Ghati Trek is a beautiful Himalayan adventure located in Himachal Pradesh. Starting from Janglik Village, the trek takes travelers through dense forests, green meadows, charming mountain landscapes, and snow-covered trails. One of the main highlights is crossing Buran Pass, which offers stunning views of the surrounding Himalayan peaks. The route provides a wonderful combination of natural beauty and adventure, making it suitable for beginners with good fitness as well as experienced trekkers. During the journey, trekkers can enjoy peaceful campsites, fresh mountain air, and changing landscapes at different elevations. The best time to experience this trek is generally May to June and September to October, depending on weather and trail conditions. Proper trekking shoes, warm clothing, rain protection, and physical preparation are important for a comfortable journey. The buran ghati trek is an excellent choice for travelers seeking an unforgettable mountain experience.
